Caring for aging parents can stir a whirlwind of emotions—love, concern, and uncertainty. At Senior Care of Arizona, the team understands the profound weight of these feelings and is dedicated to transforming this journey into one filled with compassion and hope. They have proudly supported over 9,000 families in their quest for the best care for their loved ones, easing their burdens with empathy and quality solutions.

Founded in 2021 by devoted healthcare professionals Candice Dutton and Corey Miller, this premier concierge service empowers families to make informed choices about in-home care, assisted living, memory care, and independent living. From the first call, families will feel a wave of relief as the caring team steps in, ready to guide them through the complexities of caregiving with warmth and understanding.

Candice Dutton, a medical social worker with a master's degree from Arizona State University, brings over 20 years of experience from esteemed institutions like Mayo Clinic and Barrow Neurological Institute. Her profound empathy and knowledge enable her to identify essential care needs, ensuring that every client receives the compassion and attention they deserve.

Corey Miller complements this expertise with his background in healthcare operations, ensuring that services are delivered with both efficiency and financial prudence. The entire team, composed of medical social workers and certified dementia specialists, is passionate about advocating for seniors and their families.

Based in Scottsdale, Senior Care of Arizona partners with over 2,000 pre-qualified assisted living and memory care facilities to help families find the perfect fit for their loved ones. Their commitment to excellence has earned them the privilege of being a preferred partner for 16 hospitals across Arizona, standing as a beacon of support during the most challenging times.

For those seeking a heartfelt, personalized care solution at no cost to clients, they can call 480-415-5577 to schedule a complimentary consultation. The team is ready to walk alongside families on this emotional journey, ensuring that their loved ones receive the care they truly deserve.
